About High Point, North Carolina

The City of High Point is located in the Piedmont Triad region of North Carolina and received its name for being the highest point on the North Carolina Railroad between Goldsboro and Charlotte, historically an important advantage for the city's industry and commerce. High Point is proud to be a safe and prosperous city, offering citizens a bright future full of opportunities.

Challenges

- Issues with data integrity
- Former budgeting system didn't provide the functionality and flexibility needed to prepare budgets
- ERP financial system was not user-friendly for non-financial staff

Approach

- Implemented the Operating, Personnel and Capital modules
- Easy-to-use, multi-user system for preparing budgets
- Automated workflows, approvals, and role-based security
- Easy collaboration and efficiency
- Confidence in accurate budget data

Outcome

Once High Point migrated to Euna Budget, the problems they were experiencing with their budgeting process were alleviated. They saw these outcomes as a result:

Powerful functionality for budgeting and performance management

Automated processes

for more efficient, time-saving budgeting

Data integrity

improved for greater confidence in budget numbers

"We have a lot more confidence in the data that's in and coming out of Euna Budget. The security structure in Euna Budget is much more robust and it's just a really good powerful system. Some of the things that hadn't ever worked correctly in the old system, we now have."
